MERDEKA SCHOLARSHIPS

Applications are invited from Malaysian citizens for the Merdeka Scholarships, tenable from October 2010. The scholarships are awarded to those wishing to undertake postgraduate degrees at the University of Oxford.

Successful candidates will be of exceptional academic calibre. They will have shown promise as future national leaders in their respective fields. Candidates should be able to demonstrate how their study will make a beneficial contribution to Malaysia.

The scholarships will cover university and college fees, maintenance allowance and return air fares. They will be renewable annually for the duration of the course.

Further details and application forms may be obtained from the Academic Assistant or from the website of the Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies:
